Introduction

The ownership of the Corporate sector of the Canadian economy continually changes. Significant stock purchases, mergers and takeovers all affect the concentration of corporate power, the degree of foreign control and the structure of industrial society. In response to these developments there are numerous ownership information requests from a broad spectrum of Canadian society.

To meet this information need, this latest Inter-Corporate Ownership (ICO) publication has been prepared. It is a reliable index of who owns and/or controls whom in Canada. It is intended to serve as an essential reference tool for corporate executives, bankers, financiers, marketing managers, investors, researchers and the general public, all of whom desire the latest detailed information on the corporate structure of Canadian society.

The ownership information contained in this directory is a final 1984 version. It is based primarily upon non-confidential returns filed by Canadian corporations under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act (CALURA). Many other public sources have been used to supplement CALURA returns. For example, using such international publications as Moody's, Jane's and Who Owns Whom, information on ultimate foreign parent corporations has been obtained. In many cases, this research has resulted in expanded enterprise structures, spanning several countries and leading to new insights into the organization of multi-national enterprises operating in Canada.

Wherever possible, our researchers have searched and carefully examined the existence of any options, insider holdings, convertible shares and interlocking directorates which could affect the control of a corporation. In a number of cases, reported nominees have been replaced by true owners and information on certain family controlled corporations is included.

The ICO is divided into two main sections: a Corporate Ownership Section and an Index. The Corporate Ownership Section shows the portion of voting rights of a corporation owned or held by another corporate body or group of related individuals. All holdings of an enterprise are shown in one location, and they are presented in an easy-to-read "tiered" fashion each successive layer of held corporations is indented.

A specific country of control has been ascribed to each corporation. Each active Canadian corporation is also given a Standard Industrial Classification (SIC), and the

Introduction

Les liens de parenté entre sociétés de l'économie canadienne changent constamment. Les achats de gros volumes d'actions, les fusions et les mainmises ont des incidences sur la concentration du pouvoir des sociétés, l'importance du contrôle étranger et la structure des sociétés industrielles. Tous ces changements suscitent de la part de Canadiens de tous les milieux un grand nombre de demandes de renseignements sur la propriété des sociétés.

Nous avons produit cette nouvelle version de la publication Liens de parenté entre corporations pour répondre à ces demandes. C'est un index fiable indiquant qui possède ou contrôle qui au Canada. Son but est de servir d'ouvrage essentiel de référence aux directeurs de sociétés, aux banquiers, aux financiers, aux responsables de mise en marché, aux investisseurs, aux chercheurs et au grand public, qui désirent tous des renseignements détaillés sur la structure des sociétés au Canada.

Le présent document se fonde essentiellement sur des renseignements valables pour 1984. Il est principalement basé sur des déclarations non confidentielles faites par les sociétés canadiennes en vertu de la Loi sur les déclarations des corporations et des syndicats ouvriers (CALURA), ainsi que sur de nombreuses autres sources publiques. Ainsi, on s'est servi de publications internationales, notamment Moody's, Jane's et Who Owns Whom, pour obtenir des renseignements sur les sociétés étrangères qui étaient les propriétaires ultimes. Dans bien des cas, cette recherche a fait ressortir des structures plus vastes, s'étendant dans divers pays, et a projeté de nouveaux éclairages sur l'organisation des multinationales en activité au Canada.

Dans la mesure du possible, nos chercheurs ont effectué des recherches poussées afin de trouver les options, les parts d'inités, les actions convertibles et les conseils d'administration liés susceptibles d'influencer le contrôle d'une société. En maintes occasions, ils ont remplacé les propriétaires figurant sur les registres par les propriétaires véritables. Efin, ils ont trouvé des renseignements sur certaines sociétés familiales.

Le présent document est divisé en deux parties principales: la première porte sur les liens de parenté entre corporations et la deuxième est un index. La première partie donne la proportion des droits de vote d'une société détenus par une autre société ou à un groupe de personnes apparentées, ou leur appartenant. Tous les avoirs d'une entreprise sont présentés au même endroit, par "échelons" afin d'en faciliter la consultation; ainsi chaque couche successive de sociétés détenues est mise en retrait.

On attribue un pays de contrôle à chaque société. On donne aussi à chaque société canadienne en activité un code CTI (Classification type des industries) et on indique la province où province of its head office is noted. This presents a picture of enterprise activity in terms of horizontal and vertical integration, conglomeration and multi-national participation.

The index includes all foreign-controlled corporations (in boldface print), even those without inter-corporate ownership. It includes multiple references for corporations that appear on several pages.

Special Note

It is possible that information supplied to the CALURA Administration under the Act, or obtained from research sources, could be in error. Any inaccuracies brought to the attention of the authors will be corrected in a subsequent edition.

est établi le siège social. Cela donne une image des activités de l'entreprise en matière d'intégration horizontale et verticale, de présence de conglomérats et de participation multinationale.

L'index comprend toutes les sociétés contrôlées à l'étranger y figurent en caractères gras, y compris celles qui n'ont aucun lien de parenté. L'index donne plusieurs renvois lorsqu'une société paraît sur plusieurs pages.

Note particulière

Il se peut que certains renseignements fournis à l'administration de CALURA en vertu de la Loi, ou obtenus au cours des recherches, soient erronés. Toute inexactitude signalée aux auteurs sera corrigée dans une prochaine édition.

HOW TO USE THE PUBLICATION

Assuming that the reader wishes to obtain information about a specific corporation, the Index Section, which reveals the location of the information, is described first.

The Index Section is an alphabetical listing of all the corporations and related groups contained in the Corporate Ownership Section. All foreign-controlled corporations in Canada are included and are shown in bold-face print.

In sorting names for the index most articles, conjunctions and prepositions in both English and French, as well as punctuation, are ignored. Specifically, note that THE DE HAVILLAND AIRCRAFT OF CANADA LIMITED appears under HAVILLAND. In addition, the words COMPAGNIE, CORPORATION, LIMITÉE, and LIMITED are shortened and are found under CIE, CORP, LTÉE and LTD respectively. Names starting with a number appear at the beginning of the index.

If a corporation appears on more than one page, multiple listings for that corporation are provided. All page numbers are followed by either the letter "A" or "B", indicating the left-hand or right-hand column, respectively, of the noted page.

For further information, refer to the "Description" preceding the Index.

The Corporate Ownership Section shows the names of all holding and held companies, and the respective ownership percentages, in a "tiered" format, with each succeeding level indented. This section is organized by enterprise, and within each enterprise, all the ownership relationships to other corporations are shown.

Each line in the Corporate Ownerhip Section shows, for a specific corporation (the column headings are shown in brackets):

its country of control (CTL),

The Standard Industrial Classification (SIC),

the country of residence or province of its head office (RES), the percentage of voting rights held (%) by the immediately preceding upper-level corporation (with a level number decreased by one),

a comment (C), and the level number (LEV),

its name (CORPORATION NAME),

For each enterprise, the name of the parent corporation is shown in boldface print, and has a level number (LEV) of "01". If there are any other corporations that hold an investment in the enterprise parent, they are identified on separate lines preceding the "01" line. Next all the ownership relationships to other corporations are

UTILISATION DE LA PUBLICATION

Comme la plupart de nos lecteurs désirent obtenir des renseignements sur une société particulière, nous décrivons d'abord l'index, qui indique où se trouvent ces renseignements.

L'index est une liste alphabétique de toutes les sociétés et de tous les groupes apparentés qui figurent dans la partie sur les liens de parenté entre corporations. Toutes les sociétés qui sont contrôlées à l'étranger et qui font affaire au Canada figurent en caractères gras à l'index.

La partie sur les liens de parenté entre corporations donne le nom de toutes les sociétés actionnaires ou détenues et les pourcentages correspondants des droits de vote détenus. Les sociétés sont présentées par échelons, et chaque échelon suivant est mis en retrait. Cette partie est organisée par entreprise et montre tous les liens de parenté de chaque entreprise avec les autres sociétés.

Chaque ligne de cette partie contient les renseignements suivants pour une société donnée (les en-têtes des colonnes sont entre parenthèses):

le pays de contrôle (CTL),

la classification type des industries (CTI),

le pays de résidence ou la province où est situé le siège social (RES), le pourcentage des droits de vote détenus (%) par la société qui figure à l'échelon immédiatement au-dessus (dont le numéro d'échelon est inférieur d'une unité), un commentaire (C),

le niveau (NIV),

le nom (NOM DE LA CORPORATION),

Le nom de la société mère de chaque entreprise figure en caractères gras et possède le niveau (NIV) "01". Si d'autres sociétés détiennent des actions dans la société mère, on les retrouve sur des lignes distinctes qui précèdent la ligne "01". Ensuite, tous les liens de parenté avec d'autres sociétés sont présentés par échelon et chaque couche successive de sociétés presented in a "tiered" format - each successive layer of owned corporations is indented further, and has a level number increased by one. Some of these owned corporations may be members of another enterprise, and they are identified by a "D" in the comment column.

In this section, if the country of residence is Canada, then a specific province is shown. Foreign branches show a foreign country as their residence.

The country and province mnemonics, SIC codes, comments, and other information are provided on the ivory-coloured pages preceding the section.

détenues est mise en retrait et possède un numéro d'échelon augmenté d'une unité. Certaines de ces sociétés détenues peuvent faire partie d'une autre entreprise; elles sont alors marquées par un "D" dans la colonne des commentaires.

Dans cette partie, on indique la province lorsque le pays de résidence est le Canada. La résidence des succursales étrangères est le pays étranger.

Les abréviations mnémoniques des pays et des provinces, les codes CTI, les commentaires et les autres renseignements figurent aux pages de couleur ivoire qui précèdent cette partie.

STATISTICAL NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

Coverage and Research

Corporations included in this report are principally those that are required to file a schedule of ownership information under the Corporations and Labour Unions Returns Act (CALURA). The Act, as amended in July 1981, applies to every Corporation that carries on business in Canada or that is incorporated under a law of Canada or a Province, whose gross revenue for the reporting period exceeded $15 million, or whose assets exceeded $10 million. Each corporation must include the assets and sales of its affiliates as defined in the Act. In addition, corporations with assets or sales under these amounts but having long-term debt or equity owing directly or indirectly to non-residents exceeding a book value of $200,000 must provide ownership information.

Research of international financial and ownership publications was undertaken to obtain true beneficial owners rather than nominees wherever possible. In addition, the data derived solely from the CALURA returns has occasionally proved insufficient to bring related corporations in Canada together into one enterprise because corporations are required only to report their first foreign parent. In many of these cases, the first foreign parents were traced back to an ultimate parent corporation. Sometimes this was one or two countries removed from the one reported. This research has also resulted in a more accurate assignment of country of control to the enterprise.

Under the Act, corporations are not required to report the names of individuals owning shares or the names of corporations holding less than 10% of any share class. In a select number of cases, where such information was deemed significant in revealing the extent of an enterprise, or in determining the control of a corporation, data on personal share holdings, or corporate holdings of less than 10%, was obtained and integrated with intercorporate ownership information.

NOTES STATISTIQUES ET DÉFINITIONS

Champ d'observation et recherche

Les sociétés étudiées dans le présent rapport sont surtout celles qui doivent présenter des renseignements sur leur appartenance en vertu de la Loi sur les déclarations des corporations et des syndicats ouvriers (CALURA). La Loi, modifiée en juillet 1981, s'applique à toute corporation exerçant une entreprise au Canada ou constituée en vertu d'une loi du Canada ou d'une province, dont le revenu brut pour la période de rapport excédait quinze millions de dollars, ou l'actif excédait dix millions de dollars. Chaque corporation doit comprendre les actifs et les ventes de ses filiales, conformément à la Loi. En outre, les corporations ayant un actif ou des ventes inférieures à ces montants, mais dont les créances à long terme ou les actions détenues directement ou indirectement par des non-résidents excédaient une valeur comptable de $200,000 doit fournir des renseignements relatifs à leur propriété.

Dans la mesure du possible, on a dépouillé les publications financières et les répertoires internationaux pour trouver les propriétaires véritables. En outre, les déclarations CALURA sont parfois insuffisantes pour regrouper en une seule entreprise des sociétés canadiennes ayant des liens de parenté, dans la mesure ou les sociétés sont tenues d'indiquer seulement leur société mère immédiate à l'étranger. Dans de nombreux cas, nous avons établis une liaison avec une société mère ultime établie dans un (ou deux) pays autre(s) que le pays de contrôle déclaré. Ces recherches nous ont également permis de déterminer avec plus d'exactitude le pays de contrôle des entreprises.

Aux termes de la Loi, les sociétés ne sont pas tenues de déclarer le nom des particuliers qui détiennent des actions ou le nom des sociétés qui possèdent moins de 10% d'actions de n'importe quelle classe. Nous avons jugé, parfois, que ce renseignement était utile pour déterminer l'étendue d'une entreprise ou le contrôle d'une société; nous avons alors obtenu des données sur les actions détenues par des particuliers ou sur les avoirs de moins de 10% de sociétés et les avons intégrées aux renseignements sur les liens de parenté entre sociétés.

Les sources de la recherche comprennent:

le journal officiel des administrations fédérale et provinciales, les bulletins d'information de l'Agence d'examen de l'investissement étranger, le registre des fusions de Consommation et Corporations, les publications de Moody's,

''Major Companies of Europe'', publié par Jane's,

''Who Owns Whom'' de Dun & Bradstreet, les études de différents secteurs de l'économie publiées par le Financial Post, les publications de Standard & Poor, le Conseil de la radiodiffusion et des télécommunications canadiennes, le department des Assurances

Toronto Stock Exchange,

Ontario Securities Commission.

In addition, of continuous use, were many business publications (such as, Canadian Business, Business Week, and Fortune), the daily press, and individual corporations' Annual Reports.

Control

The primary determinant of control of a corporation by another corporation or individuals, is the ownership of the majority of the corporation's voting rights. However, in some of these cases where the ownership of voting rights is insufficient to assign control, research is undertaken to determine if options or key privately-held shares exist. The findings are integrated into the control assignment process where applicable. In addition, if a majority of the board of directors are interlocking with related holding companies, then control is assigned. This is indicated by "A" in the comment column of the Corporate Ownership Section.

The following examples illustrate the concept of control of a corporation based on the majority ownership of its voting rights. Each lettered circle represents a corporation and an arrow indicates its ownership by another corporation.

In example a), corporation A owns 60% of corporation B's voting rights, and so A controls B. Similiarly, corporation B controls C, and hence A controls C. The control of B by A is direct control. The control of C by A is indirect control.

la Bourse de Toronto,

la Commission des valeurs mobilières de l'Ontario.

En outre, nous nous sommes abondamment servi de nombreuses publications spécialisées (notamment Canadian Business, Business Week et Fortune), de la presse quotidienne et des rapports annuels de chaque société.

Contrôle

Le critère principal de détermination du contrôle d'une société par une autre société ou par des particuliers est la possession de la majorité des droits de vote de cette société. Toutefois, ce critère est parfois insuffisant, et on cherche à savoir s'il existe des options ou encore si des particuliers détiennent des blocs d'actions importants. Ces recherches sont, le cas échéant, utilisées pour déterminer le contrôle. En outre, si la majorité des membres du conseil d'administration siègent aussi au conseil de sociétés actionnaires apparentées, cela peut indiquer un contrôle, qui est indiqué par un "A" à la colonne des commentaires dans la partie sur les liens de parenté entre corporations.

Les exemples suivants illustrent la notion de contrôle d'une société fondée sur la possession majoritaire des droits de vote. Chaque lettre encerclée représente une société et l'appartenance à une autre entreprise est indiquée par une flèche.

Dans l'exemple a), la société A détient 60% des droits de vote de la société B, et par conséquent A contrôle B. De la même façon, la société B contrôle C; donc, A contrôle C. Le contrôle de B par A est un contrôle direct, tandis que celui de C par A est un contrôle indirect.

Example a
Exemple a

In example b), A controls all other corporations. From the logic of the previous example A controls B and C directly and D and E indirectly. As the sum of the voting rights of F by D and E is 80% then A controls F. This is cumulative indirect control.

There are numerous methods of control generally outside the scope of this publication. For example, where the majority of a corporation's voting rights are widely diffused, a single relatively small block of shares may provide effective control. Furthermore, franchise and licencing agreements and marketing arrangements and sales contracts may also prove effective in controlling a corporation. In addition, a variety of these methods may be employed together to obtain effective control where there exists no majority shareholders. Comprehensive and consistent procedures for incorporating these other Dans l'exemple b), A contrôle toutes les autres sociétés. Selon le même principe qu'à l'exemple précédent, A contrôle B et C directement et D et E indirectement. Comme la somme des droits de vote de F détenus par D et E égale 80%, A contrôle F. C'est ce que l'on appelle le contrôle indirect cumulatif.

Il existe de nombreuses méthodes de contrôle qui ne sont pas abordées dans la présente publication. Lorsque la majorité des droits de vote d'une société sont éparpillés, un bloc d'actions relativement petit peut conférer le contrôle effectif d'une société. En outre, les accords de concession ou de licence, les ententes de mises en marché et les contrats de vente peuvent aussi servir à contrôler une société. Il est même possible de recourir à plusieurs de ces méthodes pour exercer un contrôle réel lorsqu'il n'existe pas d'actionnaire majoritaire. On n'a pas encore mis au point de règles détaillées et cohérentes pour tenir compte de ces autres méthodes de contrôle. Toutefois, si une société, reconnaît methods of control have not been devised. However, if control is acknowledged by a corporation then the acknowledgment is deemed sufficient for the purposes of this publication.

Care should be taken in using the work "controlled". In many cases where control is said to exist corporations may still function with considerable autonomy in their financial, marketing, or operational activities. Control should be used in the context of a potential that exists and is exercised within the framework of a corporate industrial society with highly varied management practices.

Enterprise

An enterprise has been defined as the collection of all corporations under a single controlling interest, which in turn is called the enterprise head or parent. Controlled corporations are called subsidiaries. A multi-corporation enterprise contains one or more subsidiaries. A corporation that is not controlled by another corporation and that does not control another corporation is called a single-corporation enterprise.

The following example illustrates these concepts.

In this example A and B form a multi-corporation enterprise with enterprise head A. C is not controlled by A, and is a single-corporation enterprise.

qu'elle contrôle une autre, on juge que c'est suffisant aux fins de la présente publication.

Il faut employer le terme "contrôle" avec prudence. Souvent, même lorsqu'il y a contrôle, les sociétés peuvent conserver une marge d'autonomie considérable en ce qui concerne les finances, la mise en marché ou l'exploitation. Le contrôle représente avant tout un potentiel, qui est exercé dans le cadre de structures industrielles caractérisées par une grande diversité de méthodes de gestion.

Entreprise

L'entreprise a été définie comme l'ensemble de toutes les sociétés sous le contrôle d'une seule société, que l'on appelle tête d'entreprise ou société mère. Les sociétés controlées sont appelées filiales. Une entreprise à sociétés multiples contient une ou plusieurs filiales. Une société qui n'est pas contrôlée par une autre et qui n'en contrôle pas d'autres est une entreprise à société unique.

L'exemple suivant illustre ces notions.

Dans cet exemple, A et B forment une entreprise à sociétés multiples dont A est la tête d'entreprise. C n'est pas controlée par A et est une entreprise à société unique.

shown including investments in other enterprises. Referring back to the preceding example, the enterprise parent would be shown as level "01", the 60% link to corporation B would be shown as level "02", and the 40% link to C would be shown as level "03" with a comment of "D" (unless control of C by A has been assigned for reasons other than voting rights, in which case the comment would be "A"). In addition, non-controlling investments in an enterprise parent are identified by "INV:".

Country of Control

Each corporation included in the ICO is assigned a "country of control". This is the basis for the analysis of the extent and impact of foreign control within the Canadian economy, as contained in the CALURA Part I, Corporations, Annual Report to Parliament, catalogue 61-210.

Generally, a corporation is considered to be foreign-controlled if a majority of its voting rights are held in foreign countries, or are held by one or more Canadian corporations that are themselves foreign-controlled. In the case of a multi-corporation enterprise, it is the enterprise head (or parent) that is considered first and each subsidiary within the enterprise is assigned the same country of control as its enterprise parent (see Example 1). If the enterprise head is a Canadian-resident corporation, the country of control is ascribed to that country in which the majority of the voting rights are held by both individuals and corporations. In those cases where the holdings of over 50% of the voting rights are distributed among non-associated shareholders in two or more foreign countries, foreign-control unspecified is assigned (see Example 5). A parent corporation whose voting rights are owned equally by a Canadian-controlled and a foreign-controlled corporation is given a foreign control code (see Example 3). If two foreign-controlled corporations own the largest and equal amounts of the voting rights of a Canadian corporation, the United States code takes precedence, followed by the United Kingdom and then the remaining European countries (see Example 4).

Strict adherence to these conventions can lead to a company's reclassification as a result of relatively minor stock transactions when the non-resident ownership of the outstanding voting rights of the company is close to 50%. In order to avoid such swings, corporations are reclassified only when changes in ownership of the voting rights are substantial or appear to alter the potential or effective control over the management of the company.

In most cases of foreign control, the country of control classification is based on tracing ownership links to the first parent corporation which is a resident of a foreign country. However, it is at times possible to determine that the first foreign parent itself, is in fact controlled by another foreign corporation which may reside in a different foreign country. In such instances control is assigned to the country of the ultimate parent.

autre, ainsi que ses autres participations. Si l'on se reporte à l'exemple précédent, l'entreprise mère figure à l'échelon "01", le lien de 60% avec la société B, à l'échelon "02", et le lien de 40% avec la société C, à l'échelon "03", suivi du commentaire "D" (à moins que le contrôle de C n'ait été attribué à A en vertu d'autres critères que les droits de vote, auquel cas on aurait un "A"). En outre, les participations dans une entreprise mère qui n'entraînent pas de contrôle sont marquées par "INV:".

Pays de contrôle

On attribue un "pays de contrôle" à chaque société étudiée dans le présent document. Ce renseignement constitue le fondement de l'analyse de l'étendue et de l'incidence du contrôle étranger au sein de l'économie canadienne, que l'on retrouve dans "Loi sur les déclarations des corporations et des syndicats ouvriers", Partie I, Corporations, rapport annuel déposé au Parlement, n$^{O}$ 61-210 au catalogue.

De manière générale, une société est dite sous contrôle extérieur si la majorité de ses droits de vote sont détenus à l'étranger ou appartiennent à une ou plusieurs sociétés canadiennes elles-mêmes contrôlées à l'étranger. Dans le cas des entreprises à sociétés multiples, on commence par établir le pays de contrôle de la tête d'entreprise ou de la société mère, que l'on attribue ensuite à chaque filiale de l'entreprise (voir exemple 1). Si la tête d'entreprise est une société résidant au Canada, le contrôle en est attribué au pays où la majorité des droits de vote sont détenus par des particuliers ou des sociétés. Dans les cas où plus de 50% des droits de vote sont répartis entre des actionnaires indépendants résidant dans plus d'un pays étranger, le contrôle est considéré comme étranger non spécifié (voir exemple 5). Une société mère dont les droits de vote appartiennent dans une proportion égale à une société contrôlée au Canada et à une société sous contrôle étranger reçoit le code de contrôle étranger (voir exemple 3). Si deux sociétés sous contrôle étranger possèdent une proportion égale de la majorité des droits de vote d'une société canadienne, les États-Unis ont la priorité, suivis du Royaume-Uni, puis des autres pays d'Europe (voir exemple 4).

La stricte observation des conventions précédentes peut conduire au reclassement d'une société par suite de petites transactions d'actions lorsque les droits de vote en circulation appartiennent à des non-résidents dans une proportion de près de 50%. Pour éviter cela, on reclasse les sociétés seulement lorsqu'une part appréciable des droits de vote change de mains ou lorsque le contrôle réel ou éventuel de la direction de la société en est effectivement modifié.

Dans la plupart des cas de contrôle étranger, on détermine le pays de contrôle en remontant jusqu'à la première société mère qui réside dans un pays étranger. Cependant, on découvre parfois que la première société mère étrangère est elle-même contrôlée par une autre société d'un autre pays. Le contrôle est alors attribué au pays de la société qui est propriétaire ultime.

The following examples have been prepared to illustrate the assignment of a country of control for a corporation. Each lettered circle represents a corporation and an arrow indicates its ownership by another corporation or individuals (e.g., A $\xrightarrow{60\%}$ B indicates that corporation A owns 60% of the corporation B's voting rights).

In Example 1, all corporations are assigned a United States control code.

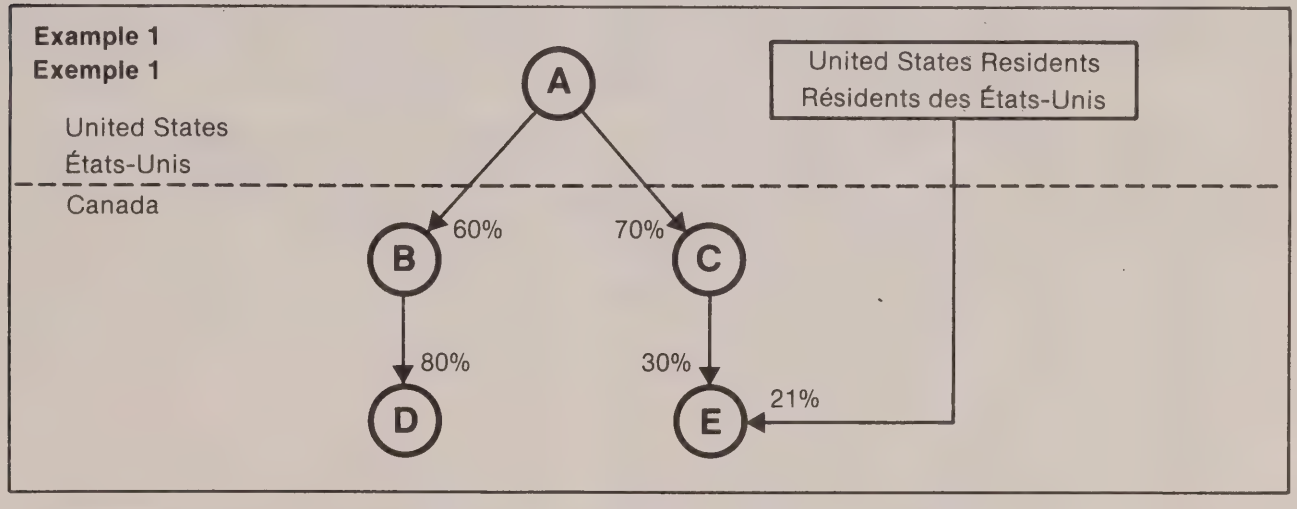
In Example 2, corporations E and G are assigned Canadian control. All other corporations are assigned United Kingdom control.

In Example 3, corporation B is assigned Japanese control.

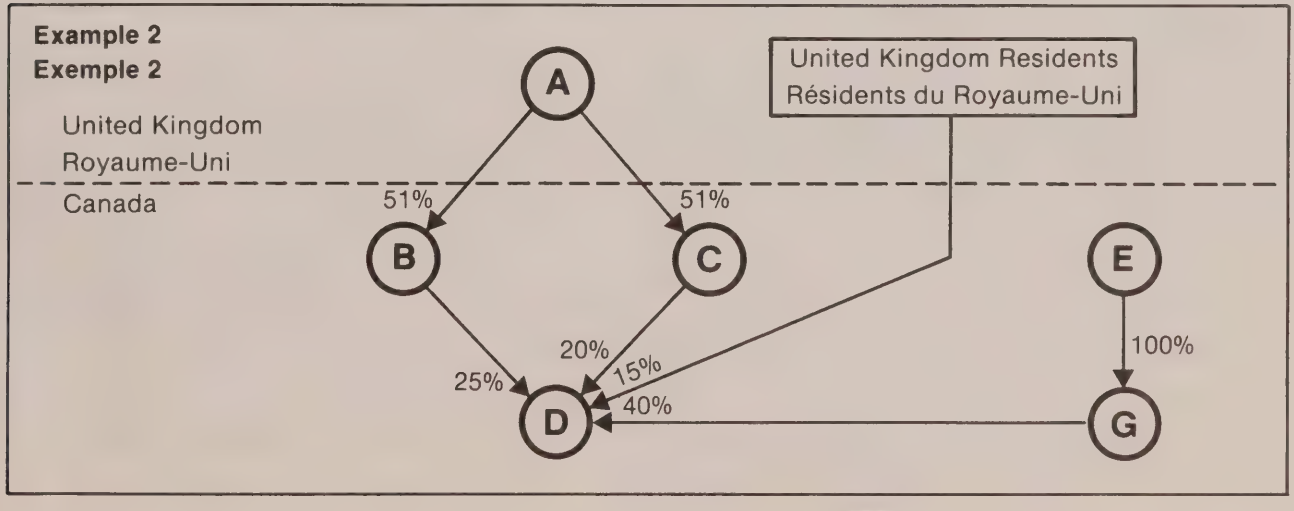
In Example 4, corporation C is considered United States controlled.

In Example 5, corporation B is considered "foreign-controlled unspecified" as the majority of voting rights are owned outside Canada and no one country can be identified as having a controlling interest.

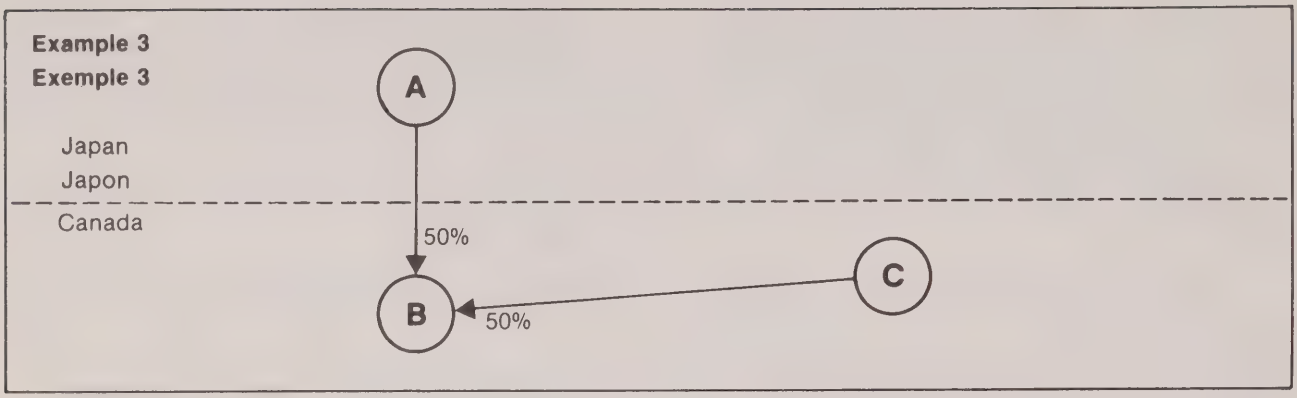
Voici des exemples de la façon d'attribuer un pays de contrôle à une corporation. Chaque lettre encerclée représente une société et l'appartenance à une autre entreprise ou à des particuliers est indiquée par une flèche (par exemple, A $\xrightarrow{60\%}$ B signifie que la société A détient 60% des droits de vote de la société B).



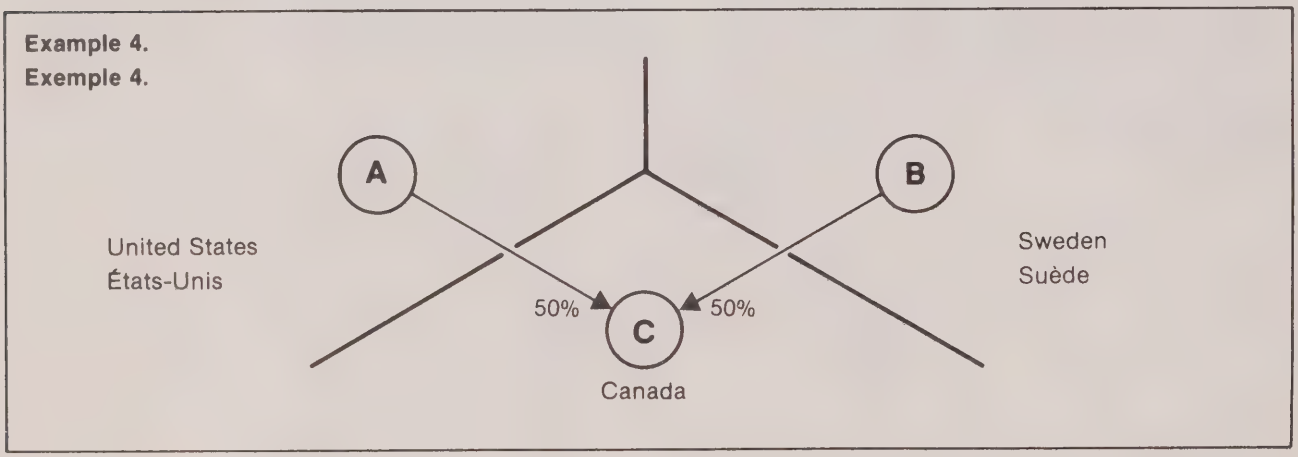
Dans l'exemple 1, toutes les sociétés reçoivent le code de contrôle des États-Unis.



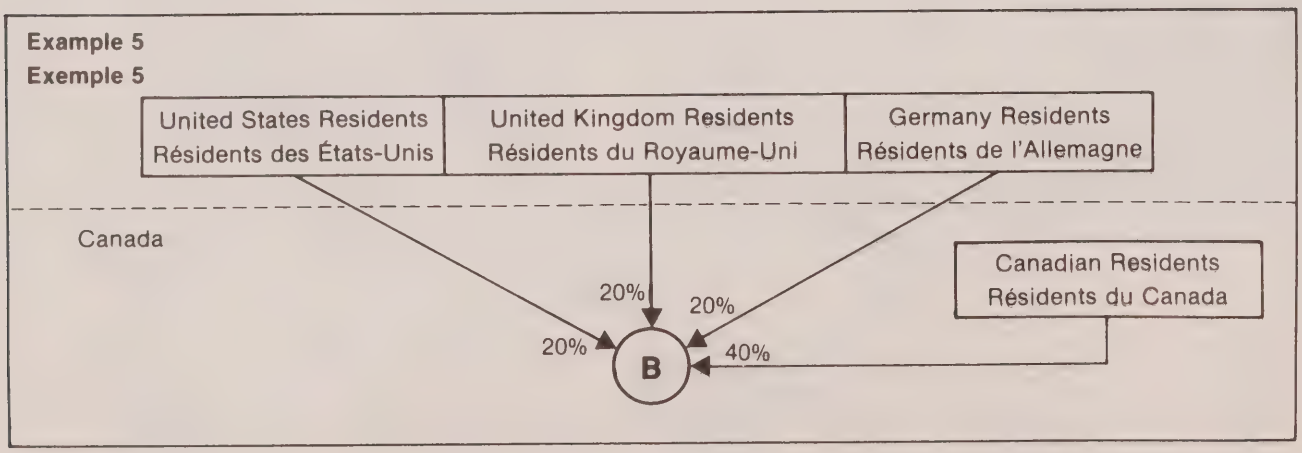
Dans l'exemple 2, les sociétés E et G sont contrôle canadien. Toutes les autres sont contrôlées au Royaume-Uni.



Dans l'exemple 3, la société B est contrôlée au Japon.



Dans l'exemple 4, on considère que la société C est sous contrôle américain.



Dans l'exemple 5, on considère que la société B est sous "contrôle étranger non spécifié" puisque la majorité des droits de vote sont détenus à l'extérieur du Canada et qu'aucun pays ne détient des intérêts majoritaires.

Industrial Classification

The industrial classification of corporations is based on the 1960 Standard Industrial Classification Manual.[1]

When a corporation is engaged in only one kind of industrial activity, industrial classification is straightforward. However problems can arise when a corporation is active in more than one kind of classifiable industrial activity. This usually occurs when a corporation operates more than one establishment. The establishment, typically a factory, mine, store or a similar unit is defined for statistical purposes, as the smallest separate operating entity capable of reporting all elements of basic industrial data which permit the calculation of "census value added"[2] or its equivalent. Corporations with several establishments are assigned to the industry that accounts for the largest share of the "census value added" or its equivalent. Inevitably, this procedure distorts the picture of the industrial activity of a corporation.

Large corporations are assigned consistently to the same industry, regardless of observed changes in their nature of business, unless such changes are of considerable importance and are more than of a transitory nature. This imposition of consistency does not in any way alleviate the distortions that will occur when a multi-activity corporation must be assigned to one industry.

The Industrial Organization and Finance Division has made a number of important departures from the conventions adopted in the Standard Industrial Classification Manual for the petroleum and natural gas industries, the non-ferrous metal mining, smelting and refining industries and the financial industries. The activities of integrated corporations in the oil and natural gas industries may embrace two or more combinations of either extraction, refining, transportation, wholesaling or retailing. All integrated firms that have activities in petroleum refining (SIC 365) are classified to that industry. All other petroleum or natural gas related firms are classified to the industry that contributes the greatest census value added. A similar departure has been taken in the case of non-ferrous metal mining, smelting and refining industries. Integrated companies are included with metal

[2] "Census value added" is a concept developed from the Census of Manufacturers as a measure of output applied to an establishment or to an industry. It is obtained from the value of gross output in a period, the value of material used, the cost of light, heat and power, the cost of goods purchased for re-sale, and some service expenses commonly incurred at the establishment level. Gross output may be measured as sales or shipments of all goods produced or purchased for re-sale or production. It includes revenues from custom work, sale of electricity and the value of fixed assets produced by their employees for their own use. Approximate equivalences in some other industries are: In trade - "Mark up on sales" which is the difference between sales and the purchase of goods sold in a period. In construction - The difference between billings, i.e. the value of work done or put in place, in a period and the cost of materials and supplies used and payments made or due to sub-contractors. In service - The difference between operating revenue received or due in a period and the cost of materials, supplies and services recorded in the census as used in the period.

Classification type des industries

La classification des sociétés par activité économique est fondée sur la classification type des industries de 1960.[1]

Il est simple de classer une société lorsque celle-ci se consacre à un genre d'activité bien précis. Toutefois, des problèmes peuvent surgir lorsqu'une société exerce ses activités dans plus d'un secteur. Cela se produit habituellement lorsqu'une société exploite plus d'un établissement. L'établissement (usine, mine, magasin ou toute unité semblable) est défini, aux fins statistiques, comme la plus petite unité d'exploitation distincte en mesure de déclarer tous les éléments de la statistique des activités économiques qui permettent de calculer la "valeur ajoutée recensée"[2] ou son équivalent. On classe les sociétés ayant plusieurs établissements dans l'activité économique qui est à l'origine de la majeure partie de "la valeur ajoutée recensée" ou de son équivalent. Ce procédé fausse inévitablement l'image que l'on donne de l'activité de la société.

On classe toujours les grandes sociétés dans la même catégorie économique, sans tenir compte de modifications dans la nature de l'entreprise, à moins que ces modifications ne soient très importantes ou qu'elles ne s'avèrent permanentes. Cette règle d'uniformité ne corrige pas pour autant les déséquilibres qui se produisent lorsqu'il faut attribuer une catégorie économique à une société exerçant diverses activités.

La Division de l'organisation et finances de l'industrie s'est sensiblement écartée à plusieurs reprises de concentions établies dans le Manuel de la classification type des industries dans les secteurs suivant: le pétrole et le gaz naturel, l'extraction, la fonte et l'affinage des métaux non ferreux et les finances. Les sociétés intégrées du secteur du pétrole et du gaz naturel peuvent exercer deux ou plusieurs activités dans le domaine de l'extraction, du raffinage, du transport et du commerce (gros et détail). Toutes les entreprises intégrées qui font le raffinage du pétrole (CTI 365) sont classées dans cette activité, et toutes les autres entreprises dont l'activité se rapporte au pétrole ou au gaz naturel sont classées dans l'industrie où la valeur ajoutée recensée est la plus grande. La Division a procédé de la même manière dans le cas de l'extraction, de la fonte et de l'affinage des métaux non ferreux. Les sociétés intégrées ont été incorporées au secteur des mines métalliques (CTI 053-057-059). Le

[2] La "valeur ajoutée recensée" est un concept élaboré à partir du recensement des manufactures afin de mesurer la production d'un établissement ou d'une branche d'activité. Pour obtenir cette valeur, on déduit de la production brute au cours d'une période donnée la valeur des matières utilisées, les frais de chauffage et d'électricité, le prix de revient des biens achetés pour la revente et les frais occasionnés par certains services courants dans les établissements. La production brute peut être évaluée d'après les ventes ou les livraisons de tous les produits fabriqués ou achetés en vue de la revente ou de la production. Y sont inclus les revenus provenant des travaux à façon, les ventes d'électricité et la valeur des immobilisations produites par la main-d'oeuvre des établissements pour leur propre utilisation. Parmi les termes équivalents dans les autres branches d'activité, citons: Dans le commerce - la marge bénéficiaire, soit la différence entre le chiffre des ventes et le prix d'achat des marchandises vendues au cours d'une période donnée. Dans le bâtiment - la différence entre les facturations, c'est-à-dire la valeur des travaux exécutés ou mis en place au cours d'une période donnée, et le coût des matériaux utilisés, majoré des sommes versées ou dues aux sous-traitants. Dans les services - la différence entre les recettes d'exploitation reçues ou acquises au cours d'une période donnée et le coût des matières, fournitures et services utilisés durant cette période selon le recensement.
